1 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:
2 Section 1. Section 32-1166, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to 3 read:

4 32-1166. Injunctive relief; civil penalty

5 A. In addition to all other remedies, when it appears to the 6 registrar, either upon complaint or otherwise, that any person, firm, 7 partnership, corporation, association or other organization, or a combination 8 of any of them, has engaged in or is engaging in any act of contracting, 9 practice or transaction which constitutes a violation of this chapter, or any 10 rule or order of the registrar, the registrar may serve upon such person, 11 firm, partnership, corporation, association or other organization not 12 currently licensed under this chapter, by certified mail or by personal 13 service, a cease and desist order requiring the person, firm, partnership, 14 corporation, association or other organization to cease and desist
15 immediately, upon receipt of the notice, from engaging in such act, practice 16 or transaction. In conjunction with the cease and desist order, the 17 registrar may issue a citation for a violation. Each citation shall be in 18 writing and shall clearly describe the violation for which the citation was 19 issued. Each citation shall contain an order to cease and desist and an 20 assessment of a civil penalty in an amount of at least two hundred dollars 21 for each violation but not more than two thousand five hundred dollars for 22 the multiple violations committed on the same day. If after the issuance of 23 a citation by the registrar, the person or organization receiving the 24 citation fails to cease and desist in the violation or violations described 25 in the citation, the registrar may assess an additional civil penalty of up 26 to two thousand five hundred dollars for each day the violation or violations 27 continue. The registrar shall adopt rules covering the assessment of a civil 28 penalty that give due consideration to the gravity of the violation and any 29 history of previous violations. The penalties authorized under this section 30 are separate from, and in addition to, all other remedies either civil or 31 criminal.

32 B. Each violation of this chapter or a rule or order of the registrar 33 by a person who is required to be licensed by this chapter and who does not 34 possess the required license shall constitute a separate offense, and the 35 registrar may impose a civil penalty of not to exceed two thousand five 36 hundred dollars for each violation except that for multiple violations 37 committed on the same day the civil penalty shall not exceed two thousand 38 five hundred dollars for all such violations. Monies collected from civil 39 penalties shall be deposited in the state general fund.

40 C. The registrar of contractors may issue citations containing orders 41 to cease and desist and of civil penalties against persons who have never 42 been licensed under this chapter AND who are acting in the capacity of or 43 engaging in the business of a contractor in this state.
